

	The Rig Arts, craft and music
	Where? Edgbaston Street
	When? 12pm – 6pm
	How long? As long as you are happy!
   	What you need to know: The Rig is an installation of curiosities.... a musical playground for all the family. Built from up-cycled objects turned into instruments and sound experiments, you can really get creative. Ever used a suitcase as a bass drum or made an oven tray into head phones? No? Then come have a go! You can also get crafty using recycling to make musical instruments to take away... make a Tin Can Drum or a Plastic Bottle Shaker and play along to your favourite music. Who'd have thought that saving the environment could be so much fun!
	Trigger points: It may be a little loud – but don't worry – we have ear defenders

	Seating/ standing: Standing and sitting
	Music: lots of it!
    	Any special information: It's suitable for everyone of all ages! Everyone can make music... There will be an Audio Described and BSL tour happening from 3pm-3:45pm. There will be an Audio Described and BSL tour happening from 3pm-3:45pm. You can visit our Access Hub on Rotunda Square to request a hosted tour of the activity.
